CAI's operating experience
and strong customer base offers a growing network of 300+ global carriers.

These relationships provide our customers with an operational infrastructure enabling us to develop unique and customized supply chain solutions.

This global bandwidth provides access to much needed equipment in congested and deficit areas and expands customer carrier choices.

CAI's partnerships with shipping lines, rail providers, and trucking companies enable us to provide dynamic end to end service and support.

Our services are interwoven with the many different facets of the ongoing globalization process.

We base our operations on economic, social and ecological principles that foster its long-term business strategies in the most comprehensive way possible.

CAI views corporate responsibility as a wide-ranging obligation and commitment to be practiced by management and staff in our daily routines.

The company's organizational structures and procedures are consciously designed toward meeting these demands, particularly in terms of quality, security, health, environmental protection and social engagement.

That's CAI's commitment
to you!
